Foreword

In this yearbook is contained a portion of our high school life. These days will be preserved here forever in pictures and words. Memories of classes, teachers, friends, and activities will be revived again as we recognize familiar faces and see again formerly every-day sights. To those of you who may glance through this book but have not attended Westminster High, this might seem just another yearbook. However, to the staff, teachers, graduating class—to everyone who, along with the rest of us, has worked, played, lived, laughed, and cried here—this is a golden book of memories recalling days that can never be lived again.

First row: W. Peeling, T. Thomas, L. Leister, C. Haines, S. Bixler, R. Ridington, J. German, J. Kinnamon, G. Rauch, A. Henry, S. Triplett. Second row: Mr. J. W. McGill, B. Burkins, F. Caple, C. Bixler, J. Evans, J. Frock, D. Freyman, J. Price, J. Wolf, J. Head, D. Gehr, E. Petry, C. Boone, J. Barnes, P. Krebs, M. Long.

Under the capable leadership of Editor Robbins Ridington the Senior Owl Staff has contributed greatly to develop further interest in the student publications. To affirm this statement the Senior Owl Staff has proven these abilities along various channels. One of its many activities includes editing six issues of the school newspaper. The culmination of their journalistic career came with the final publication of the yearbook and the supplement of '57.

"SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS
ARE ONLY AS GOOD
AS THE STUDENTS
MAKE THEM."

"The Yearbook is a chronicle of the school year and the graduating class. For Seniors it is the culmination of twelve years of working and naturally reflects the spirit of the class. It should induce one to recall in years to come the high point of the year and the everyday things so familiar to us now. It has been a great pleasure and privilege to work with the staff on our yearbook and I would like to thank each and everyone who made this book possible.

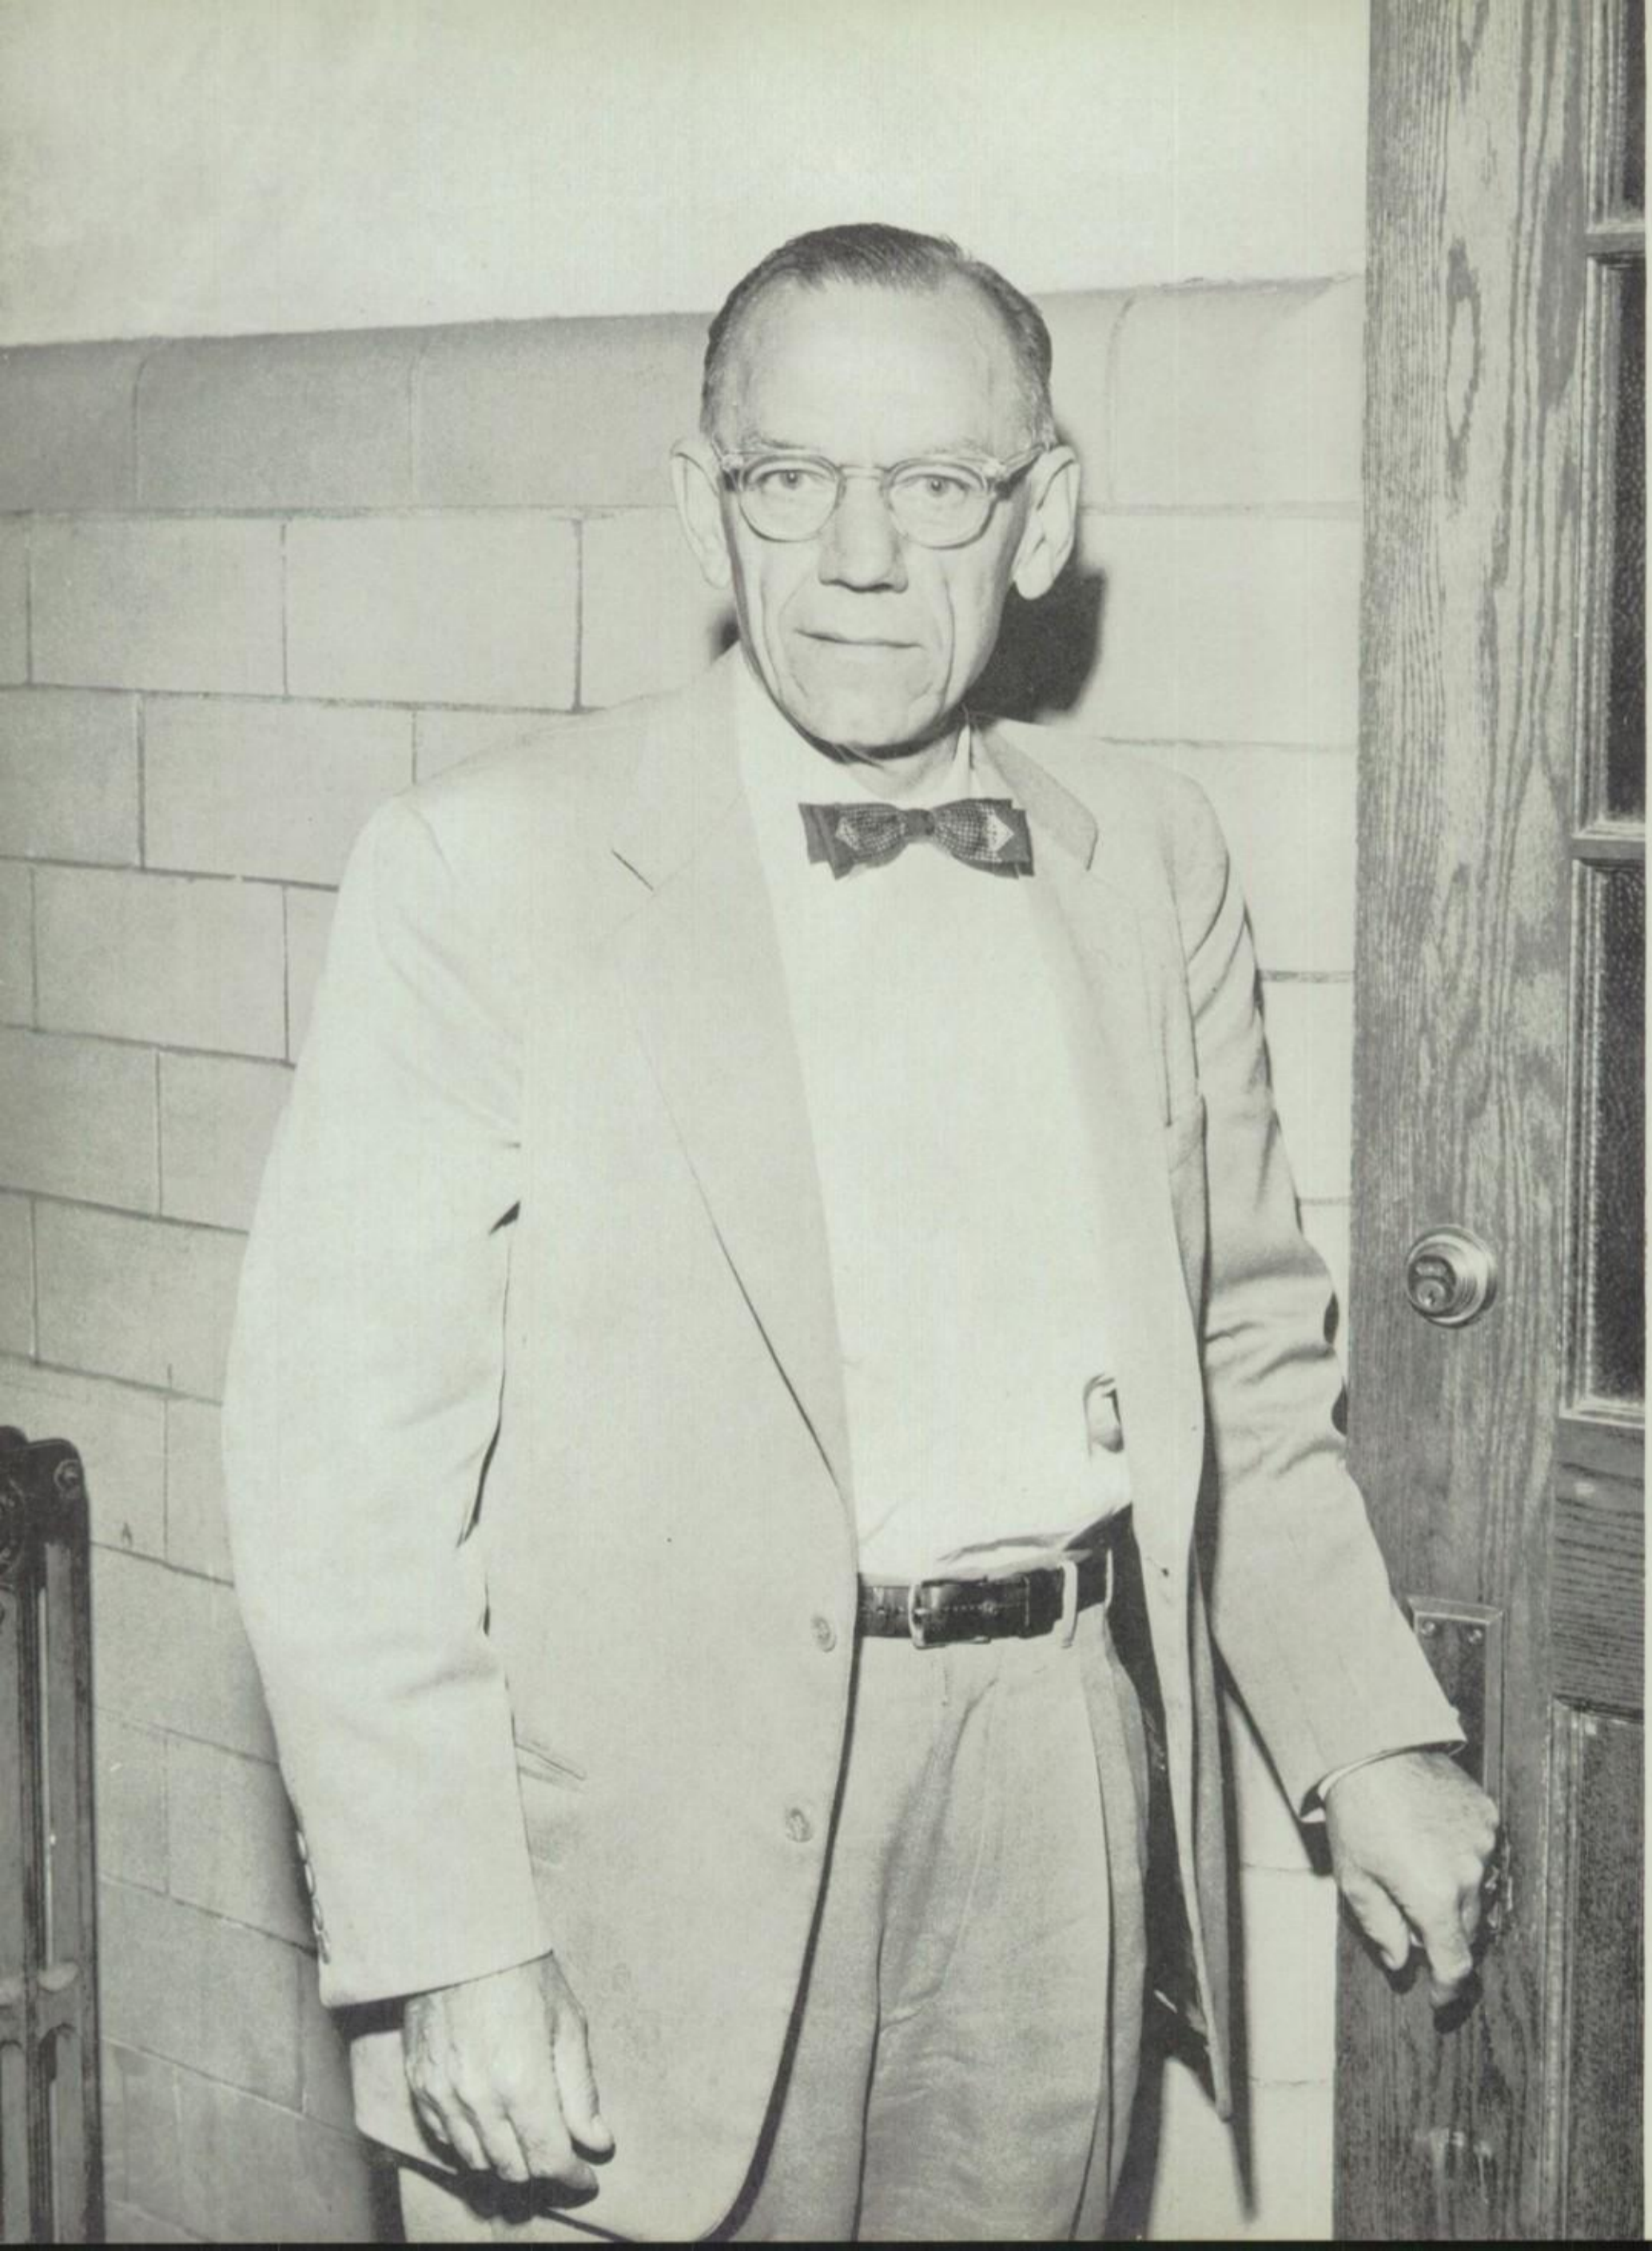

ROBBINS RIDINGTON

To thee, Westminster High School dear,
Our Alma Mater true,
With many a cherished memory
Our thoughts will stay with you;
And oft' our kindled hearts will blaze
For knowledge, truth, and right;
In proud allegiance here we praise
Thy true blue and pure white.

With virtue, honor, love supreme
We raise our grateful song,
Creator of our youthful dreams
And of our purpose strong;
Thy guiding hand will lead us then,
Thy high ideas prevail;
These halls will ring as now we sing
Westminster hail all hail!

With Gratitude

We, the Class of Fifty-Seven, dedicate our Yearbook to Mr. Lyman D. Earhart, "Doc." We'll remember with nostalgia the test cards on the blackboard in Geometry and the way an "unsolvable" equation made sense after his patient explanation, but most of all, we'll remember his dry sense of humor, his down to earth advice and comments on life, and his undisputed fairness.

We feel honored to be just one class in the long line of students he has led in his thirty-three years of teaching in the county. Mr. Earhart has been an inspiration and guide to students, past and present, at the turning points of their lives.

We proudly call Mr. Earhart TEACHER in the full dignity and respect of the word as we dedicate the Fifty-Seven Yearbook to him.

CLASS SONG OF '57

Tune (Halls of Ivy)

*We're the class of fifty-seven,
And we're sad to say adieu,
To our cherished Alma Mater,
Our own true white and blue,
We will keep these happy memories throughout all*

Our passing days, and we'll remember friends so dear and all their carefree ways.

For soon a hush will fall, the footsteps of us all will echo down the hall and disappear

*But as we sadly start our journeys far apart a part of every heart will linger here
Here with thee, Westminster High School, where we lived and learned to know,
That through the years we'll see you in the sweet afterglow.*

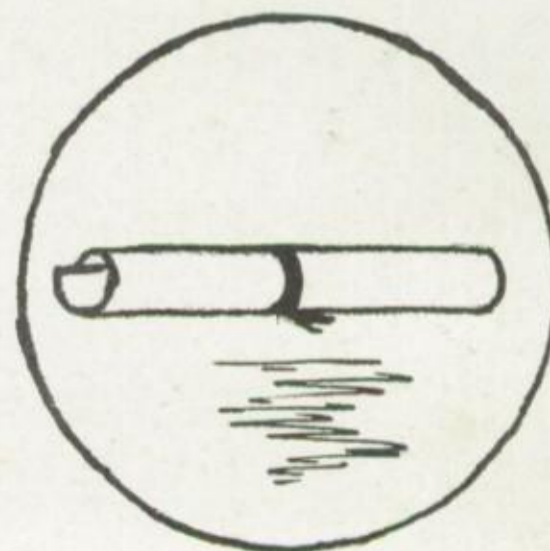

*Now we leave Westminster High School that surrounds us here today, and we
Will not forget though we be far, far away, For to thee, Westminster High School,*

Every voice will bid farewell, And echo through these halls that we'll remember so well.

*One day a hush will fall; the footsteps of us all will echo down the hall and
disappear,*

But as we sadly start our journeys far apart, a part of every heart will linger here,

*Here with thee, Westminster High School
Where we lived and learned to know,
That through the years we'll see you in,
the sweet afterglow.*

Our Cherished Memories

It seems just a short time ago that the Class of '57 entered Westminster High School. But now "Father Time" tells us it is time for us to say farewell. As we leave these hallowed halls we leave behind us six golden years of memories. We will never forget:

SEVENTH GRADE:

We marched diligently to our classes and were never late. We were scared to death of a sacred place called detention hall and many of us became honorary members. In the Seventh Grade several of the students made the big Christmas Play and it was the boys' turn to lend their beautiful soprano voices to the angelic boys' choir.

EIGHTH GRADE:

The eighth grade passed by very quickly. With very little opportunity to join clubs or participate in sports we spent most of our time being studious "demons."

NINTH GRADE:

Then came our Freshman Year. It was our turn to be the big wheels of the Junior High. Some of our boys and girls made the Junior Varsity teams. We began to take minor parts in many extracurricular activities. The highlight of the year came with the big class trip to Annapolis.

TENTH GRADE:

Our Sophomore Year rolled around quickly. We operated on frogs and earthworms in Biology (the girls being horrified!) and did our first Shakespearean Play. We organized our class and elected Nelson Brenneman as President. We joined many clubs and became well rooted in high school life. The major event of the year was the Sophomore Swing which proved to be a great success.

ELEVENTH GRADE:

In our Junior Year we began to prepare for leadership of the school. In the fall we elected Jim Head as Class President, and he served us to the utmost capacity. We will never forget those crazy dramatics classes and those amusing pantomimes. It was our turn to fill the hall with fragrant odors of chemistry and write those term papers. The culmination of the year was our long awaited Junior Prom, the theme of which was the Carousel. As we stood before the Class of '56 on Class Night singing our class song we began to realize that the end of our school years was drawing nigh and that great responsibilities were lying ahead of us.

TWELFTH GRADE:

Finally the long awaited title of Seniors. We capably took over the leadership of the school and tried to prove good examples for the underclassmen. The year was highlighted with many activities such as the Christmas Play and Chorus, the Eisteddfoa, Magazine Campaign, the Senior Prom, those horrible exams, Class Night, and finally Graduation. Though we are sad to leave we are looking forward to taking our place in the world proving that our education was a great benefit to us.

MR. QUENTIN L. EARHART
Principal

Great progress has been made in Science and Technology in recent years. We can expect to see even greater progress in the immediate future and the years to come. However, I believe there needs to be achieved a balance between this technical progress and the progress in the field of human living. I also believe that we need to improve the quality of such relations within our homes, churches, and schools, before we can extend erance, and kindness need greater emphasis and practice if men, women, and this nation are to reach their proper level of maturity. An old Chinese proverb reads, —"No one blames you for being too polite." May you measure your own growth and maturity with this yardstick.

Guidance Counselors

Six years ago you members of the class of 1957 looked toward the halls of Westminster High School as a new, alluring adventure. Now you have memories of friendly times spent here, and of lessons learned. You can best show your appreciation of these, not in words, but in the use of the opportunities which face you in your next adventure.

Someone has said, "The road to success is dotted with many parking places." Keep moving! Our best wishes for success and happiness go with you.

Virginia Troxell
Junior High Counselor

Every year, it's NEW!
The yearbook . . . caps and gowns . . . graduation.
Every year the same, but as always, it's NEW!
Because this year it's YOU.

There's a magic about graduation: potential of every individual graduate, the unlimited possibilities of your life, the future, the unknown, the beyond . . .

We, your teachers here at Westminster High School, have shared for a few years your life; we have tried to strengthen you as you selected the best of the many choices which have come to you. Now, it is over, this high school chapter of your life, and it's June, 1957, your doorway to your future.

This is YOUR yearbook . . . YOUR graduation . . . YOUR life.

May it be a good life for you and those about you . . . tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow.

They Represented Us . . .

Each year representatives are chosen from the Junior Class of Westminster High School to attend the Maryland Girls' and Boys' State which is held in Annapolis, Maryland, during the month of June. At that time the students learned many useful facts concerning the construction and working of their city, county, and state governments.

The Maryland State Chorus is one of the outstanding opportunities offered to several vocal students each year at Westminster High School. This year's chorus, composed of approximately 350 voices, was under the direction of Dr. Clyde Dengler. The group, performing at the opening session of the Maryland Teachers Convention in Baltimore, sang the following selections: Gloria in Excelsis, Cindy, Carousel, Send Forth Thy Spirit, Johnny Schmoker, and Elijah Rock.

Several students from W. H. S. had the honor of participating in the Maryland State Band and Orchestra. Those attending State Band were Robin Engelman and Stanley Sharkey. Reba and Rachel Sies, Edward and Mary Lee Arrington, and Stanley Sharky attended State Orchestra.

Driver Training

The Driver Training Class under the direction of Mr. Molesworth learns driving techniques and safety on the highway.

Stage Crew

M. Card, H. Bair, W. Groft, L. Elderdice, R. Graham, O. Willen, W. Caple, E. Bair.

The W. H. S. Stage Crew has assisted Mr. Eaton in preparing for theatrical presentations and assemblies. Plying the arts of carpentry, electrical engineering, and staging, the crew gains valuable experience while participating behind the scenes in the programs we all enjoy. The dramatic lighting effects, and artful scenery that we all take for granted are the results of careful planning and hard work on the part of the stage crew.

Projection Club

First row: M. Walsh, J. Utermahlen, S. Ford, K. Edmonston, O. Willen, L. Elderdice, Mr. Myers. Second row: A. Lang, K. Ford, S. Simmons, M. Zepp. Third row: D. Miller, D. Hollinger, G. Weber, C. Haines, D. Furgeson, R. Graham, G. Brewer. Fourth row: H. Himler, C. Starner, D. Lambert, J. Wolfe.

Senior Dramatics

The senior dramatics class has had an active season this year, presenting a Columbus Day skit, Abner Craine From Hayseed Lane, at the Bazaar, Star Song for the Christmas Pageant, A Wedding Has Been Arranged for the Queen of Hearts, and several plays for Class Night.

The experience gained in dramatics at W. H. S. will be useful in everyday life as well as on the stage.

First row: S. Triplett, K. Ford, E. Petrey, W. Peeling, J. Barnes. Second row: S. Bixler, H. Boblitz, J. Shamer, N. Grimsley, M. Wolfe, J. Evans. Third row: B. Myers, D. Utz, R. Ridington, G. Bowman, First row: S. Kephart, C. Ebaugh, W. Buckingham, J. Mitchell, E. Zepp, S. Palmer.

Junior Dramatics

This year's junior dramatics class is being introduced to the world of pantomime, grease paint, and spotlights. In the picture, Jeff Smelser entertains the group while practicing the fundamentals of acting.

Fitted into the juniors' busy schedule are several actual plays employing the skills acquired during the year.

The Christmas Chorus, composed of Seniors and Juniors, was under the direction of Mrs. MacIntosh.

Seen here is Mr. Carozza's Boys' Soprano Choir, who also participated in our Christmas program.

The annual Christmas Dance, sponsored by the National Honor Society, was held December 15, 1956.

Lucius (Marvin Wolfe), Gaius (John Evans), Barshan (Carl Haines), Rachel (Shelbia Bixler), and Arod (James Price) fight for possession of the brazier.

Tirza (Gretchen Rauch) welcomes Octavia (Janet German) and her Slave, Siti (Darlene Utz), to the inn.

The conclusion of the play comes when the lame slave girl, Nuna (Sandra Triplett), walks.

Homecoming Queen

WANDA PEELING

Elected by the Senior High School, Wanda Peeling reigned over the Second Annual Homecoming Activities. Her attendants were Rose Marie Frock and Virginia Schultz.

Football Favorite

SYLVIA FORD

This year's Football Favorite was Sylvia Ford. Elected by the football squad, Sylvia reigned over the Football Formal held in the gymnasium.
